

Section of the Colony and its districts by the colonial authorities.

That the form of the districts to be and regulate the operation of the roads & for other purposes be determined

The Council of safety -

That it consist of thirteen members and such of the delegates of the colony as shall be so appointed, and no one member to reside always in the fort any.

That an military officer residing at the centre of the colony be eligible to sit in the council of safety

That the said Council of safety - having a general view of the colony shall have power to issue Commission for the same as need be required to such persons as are fit for any of their several offices

That the said Council on a request of them be vested with full power & authority to inspect any officer in the army who in any place shall be necessary and shall within a convenient time